Man, 81, Leads 12 Germans Thru Tunnel To Freedom

BERLIN (AP) — Twelve East Germans, led by a man 81 years old, escaped to West Berlin early this month through a 165-foot tunnel they had dug under the wall. The group disclosed the feat Friday after their secret had been discovered by East German police.

I Wanted Freedom

Max Thomas, the octogenarian leader, told a news conference: "I wanted a bit of freedom. I didn't even want to be buried over there."

Seven men, four women and a boy, 16, made up the group. One man was 76, another 70, and one of the women 68.

The tunnel was started in Thomas' hen house, empty since the chickens went into the pot last winter. He pretended to be digging a garden. The tunnel took 16 days of work. It was made 69 inches high to spare the elderly

Carpenter's Flight Is Postponed

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Space engineers tried to plug new electrical safety into the Aurora 7 space capsule Friday to insure a safe landing for astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter's orbital flight.

The flight of the Navy lieutenant commander, postponed from Saturday, now is set for Tuesday.

"This added feature will buy us safety," explained senior engineer William M. Bland of the Project Mercury manager's office.

Movie Based On Escape

It was built only 132 feet away from another tunnel through which 23 people had escaped last January. A Hollywood film company is now making a movie in West Berlin based on that escape.

The tunnelers' story came out as another adventurous refugee. Thomas Mollitor, 10, returned voluntarily to East Berlin with his mother. Feeling oppressed at home and at school, Thomas had jumped from a five-story building into a West Berlin fireman's net April 10.

Indonesian Parachutists Are Repelled

HOLLANDIA, West New Guinea (AP) — Dutch troops were reported Friday to have engaged at least 100 Indonesian parachutists near Fakfak, scene of repeated Indonesian attempts to gain a foothold in West New Guinea.

There have been four reported paratroop landings in westernmost New Guinea in recent weeks, and it was not immediately clear which group of Indonesians the Dutch were reported fighting.

The latest drop was said to have taken place Thursday night about 20 miles east of Kaimana, a village 100 miles southeast of Fakfak, a copra port on the Ceram Sea.

District Commissioner J. DuBois reported a drop of Indonesian paratroopers Tuesday about seven miles east of Kaimana. At least 40 Indonesians were reported dropped six miles east of Fakfak, also on Tuesday. They withdrew into the jungle after Dutch marines carried out a fast amphibious operation and engaged them in combat.

Belated Confirmation

Indonesia gave belated confirmation that Dutch planes downed an Indonesian transport Thursday on the West New Guinea coast near Fakfak. An Indonesian broadcast heard in Tokyo said the plane was on a routine flight. The Dutch said earlier an undetermined number of Indonesians on the transport survived, boarding a rubber dinghy, and the Dutch arranged to pick them up.

The military tempo has stepped up as attempts to settle the future of the disputed territory by negotiation remain suspended. Indonesian President Sukarno has threatened to take West New Guinea from the Dutch by force if he cannot get it by negotiation by the end of 1962.

Landing Marines Is Unwise, Khru Says

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev Friday pictured the dispatch of U.S. Marines to Thailand as an unwise move that might lead to another Korea. The Marines will shoot, he said, "and those at whom they shoot will shoot back."

Khrushchev told Western correspondents: "I am surprised at how the Americans plunged into this net. Once you are in, you know, it is not so easy to get out."

"They went into Korea very easily, and nevertheless that lasted three years."

Visiting this Soviet satellite, Khrushchev said in a speech at Obnova earlier in the day that the U.S. forces would be driven out of Southeast Asia, although it might take 15 years.

Korea Comparison

Still on the subject Friday night at a Soviet Embassy reception here, he told correspondents that Korea soon developed into fighting with other countries taking part.

Asked if he thought the situation in Laos would develop in a similar manner, Khrushchev said, referring to the U.S. troops: "What do you think? They arrived with arms. Do you think they went in to play golf?"

"They came with their weapons, and they will use them—they will shoot, and those at whom they shoot will shoot back."

Marines Positioned To Protect Border

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — U.S. Gen. Paul D. Harkins warned Friday that danger still lurks from pro-Communist forces in Laos whose drive from the north brought a rush of American soldiers and Marines here to protect Thailand's border.

Though the Pathet Lao is no longer exploiting victories in northwest Laos, "there's not much change in the situation which precipitated the crisis," said the general. He flew here from his main headquarters in South Viet Nam on his first commuting trip to inspect the Thailand leg of his new command.

It seemed, though, that 1,800 Marines already encamped in a dusty paddy field amid an impressive display of shooting iron close to the Laos border were here mostly for a moral backdrop to the Thai people for the present.

Grand Jury Indicts Hoffa For Payments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa was indicted by a federal grand jury Friday on charges of accepting more than a million dollars in illegal payments from a Michigan trucking company.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy announced the two-count indictment was returned in Nashville, Tenn.

He said it accused Hoffa and the late Owen (Bert) Brennan, former Teamster vice president, of receiving $1,008,067 from Commercial Carriers Inc.

Also a Defendant

Kennedy said Commercial Carriers, a nationwide automobile transport company, also was named as a defendant.

Hoffa already was facing a federal mail fraud indictment at Orlando, Fla., based on alleged misuse of $500,000 of Teamsters Union funds in a Florida land development deal. Hoffa's lawyers have moved for dismissal of this case, and the court is weighing their arguments.

As described in a statement by Kennedy, the Nashville indictment accuses Hoffa of conspiring with Commercial Carriers, Inc., to set up a truck rental operation through which illegal payments were made from 1949 to 1958.

The charges have been aired previously in congressional investigations, including the Senate labor-management hearings conducted by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark. Kennedy was chief counsel of the Senate probe, and he and Hoffa have been antagonists ever since.

Hoffa and the late Owen (Bert) Brennan, former Teamster vice president who died a year ago, were named in one count, and Hoffa and Commercial Carriers were named in a second count of the indictment.

Air Landing Alerts

NEW YORK (AP) — Emergency crews were alerted three times within 30 minutes Friday at Idlewild Airport after planes experienced mechanical difficulties. All the craft landed safely.

Vote Machines To Be Reopened

MONROE County Election Board will order the Smithfield Township election board to open the voting machines Friday at 2 p.m. to make a new tabulation.

The county election board was unable to agree on a total figure as a result in a mistake in addition.

The board tried to compare the unofficial with the official and minority reports. They could not arrive at a total vote.

James R. Marsh, Monroe County District Attorney, has been notified and he will also be present when the machines are opened.

Former Butcher Hired To Supervise Salesmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — A New York Attorney who operates a stock brokerage house as a sideline testified Friday that he recently hired a young former butcher to supervise his force of telephone salesmen.

This was just one of the many unusual aspects of the operations of Albion Securities Co. Inc., detailed by John F. Dailey, secretary-treasurer. He testified at a public hearing by the Securities and Exchange Commission into the hiring of securities salesmen, their training and selling techniques.

SEC investigators, attempting to contrast Albion's sales crew and selling practices with those of more prominent brokers, drew from the amiable, bespectacled witness testimony that:

No Previous Experience

1. Albion was created by Dailey and a brother, Murray, neither of whom had previous experience in the brokerage business. Murray Dailey was described as a produce dealer, beer distributor, sausage manufacturer and trotting horse trainer from Albion, N.Y.

2. To supervise operations, John Dailey hired men identified only as Mr. G. and Mr. C. Both are former employees of half a dozen brokerage houses generally classified as "boiler rooms," where high-pressure selling is conducted by telephone.

3. One of Albion's star stock peddlers was a door-to-door vacuum cleaner salesman hired after he had tried to sell a cleaner to Mr. G. Asked if Mr. G. had bought a vacuum, Dailey replied, "I think he bought one, but I'm not sure if he paid for it." The salesman, Mr. R. E. earned $9,461 from Albion last year.

"Confidential Survey"

4. Albion sent large-scale mailings to investors, urging them to write for a "confidential survey" of their stock portfolios. Dailey said no surveys had been made but that replies were used to "help the salesman evaluate the prospect."

5. A stock strongly recommended by Albion last summer became virtually worthless within three months when the issuing company, Edging Engineered Products, Inc., of Miami, went bankrupt.

Walter Honored For His Efforts

By JOSEPH A. CUSACK
Daily Record Managing Editor

PRINCETON, N. J. — The third annual meeting of the Water Resources Assn. of the Delaware River Basin ended last night on a note of achievement, praise and plans of things to come. The all-day meeting covered many phases of the association's work during the past year.

As a highlight of the day's program, Rep. Francis E. Walter was awarded a plaque for his outstanding accomplishments in promoting the Delaware River for more than three decades. The award was presented by association president Charles R. Bensinger, Jr., who recounted some of the efforts Walter had made in attaining a complete change-over of industrial prospects for the area.

In accepting the plaque, Walter said, "This award is a stamp of approval on the seniority system in the Congress of the United States. We, in the Delaware Valley, are on the threshold of providing a great opportunity for our country."

"Things Change"

"Things change. Today there are many industries which were not here when I first began in Congress. By the same token, there are many industries which I remember as a boy that are not here today."

"Slowly but surely replacement of lost employment is needed, and I am happy to say that I have been able to be part of the effort to do this. Today we are on the threshold of achievement, and I will continue my efforts to bring about further improvement. We must remember that our area is within 200 miles of serving a quarter of the population of the United States."

Also honored at the dinner which closed the day's activities was Col. T. E. Seiffert, engineer in charge of the Philadelphia office of the U. S. Army's Corps of Engineers, who has been instrumental in preparing the report which was submitted to Congress, recommending projects in the Delaware River Basin. Primary among these projects is the Tocks Island Dam.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting was preceded by a tour of the Delaware Valley from Delaware Water Gap to Port Jervis, N. Y., by a number of key personnel on the Tocks Island project. The tour, which for some was an initiation to the Tocks Island area, was made by helicopter.

The trip, which started from the Princeton Inn, headquarters for the annual meeting, began early in the morning, before the regular business session and included the following:

H. Mat Adams, commissioner, New Jersey Dept. of Conservation and Economic Development; Conrad L. Wirth, director, National Park Service; Vernon D. Northrop, federal alternate member, Delaware River Basin Commission; Bensinger; Ronald F. Lee, director, Region V office, National Park Service, Philadelphia; John E. Raybourn, park planner, Region V office, National Park Service; Montgomery F. Crowe, former state senator from Stroudsburg; Joseph A. Cusack, managing editor, The Daily Record, Stroudsburg; John J. Roddy, director of community relations, Water Resources Assn., and Roderick G. MacLeod, Daily Record photographer.

A Wonderful Job

Keynoting the afternoon session of the meeting, James F. Wright, executive director of the Delaware River Basin Commission, said:

Ex-Sailorsburg Resident Dies

The Day of the Lord

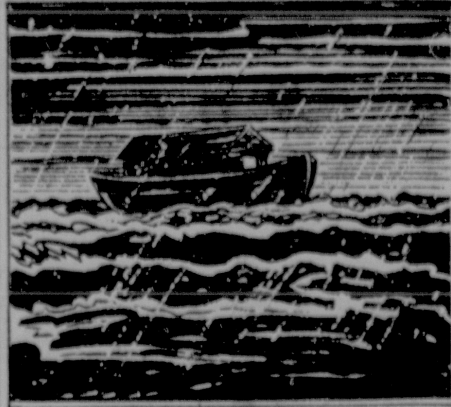

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Busscher

Scripture—Psalms 138; II Peter 3: Jude.

Peter warns that "in the last days" the world will seem overrun with scoffers, who say the Lord has not fulfilled His promise to come in glory, and that things have been the same since creation.—II Peter 3:3-4.

However, Peter says, God reckons time differently, counting "one day as a thousand years." Also, "the creation" was the result of a Creator, Who once destroyed in a flood what He created.—II Peter 3:5-6.

The apostle Jude concurs, mentioning that God gave an example of the punishment He was prepared to mete out to those who repudiated the faith, in destroying the wicked cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.—Jude 5, 7.

Both apostles urge Christians to cling zealously to their faith, so they may "be found by Him without blemish" on Judgment Day, when "the elements shall be dissolved."—II Peter 3:10, 14. GOLDEN TEXT: II Timothy 1:12.

Historic Decision Affects Schools

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

Associated Press Religion Writer

An historic decision that could affect religious practices in approximately half the nation's public schools is pending before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Specifically, the question involved is whether it is legal for children in schools at New Hyde Park, N.Y., to recite this 22-word prayer:

"Almighty God, we acknowledge our dependence upon Thee, and we beg Thy blessings upon us, our parents, our teachers, and our country."

If such a prayer, designed to be completely nonsectarian, is ruled unlawful, it could open the way for eliminating all prayers from the public schools.

It is the first time the high tribunal has undertaken a ruling on the question.

Studies have indicated that prayers of some kind are used regularly in public schools in about 33 per cent of the nation's communities, and occasionally in another 17 per cent.

In other words, prayers are evidently used sometimes in about half the country's 117,855 public schools—or about 58,927 of them. Twenty-four states expressly permit it or require it. It is widespread elsewhere, at local discretion.

In New York, the State Board of Regents drafted the nonsectarian invocation, to be used at the option of local communities, hoping to minimize conflict.

An estimated 10 to 15 per cent of the schools in the state, not including the big New York City school system, use the prayer. Children may be excused from taking part.

In the test case, 19 other states have filed briefs, supporting constitutional validity of the practice, and saying that to prohibit it would have far-reaching consequences across the nation.

Rev. Barham Is Guest Speaker

REV. W. S. Barham, of Dallas, Tex., will be the guest speaker at a series of services in the First Pentecostal Assembly of God Church, Stroudsburg.

The series will begin Tuesday and will continue each night, except Saturday, at 7:45 p.m.

The prayer is as nonsectarian as Irving Berlin's "God Bless America," says the Roman Catholic weekly, America, backing its use. "It is imposed on no one."

Similarly, the National Association of Evangelicals declared the constitutional principle of church-state separation was not meant to exclude such practices as school prayer and Bible reading, and that to assume it does plays into the hands of irreligion and atheism.

However, Rabbi Philip Hlat, executive secretary of the Synagogue Council of America, said there is no such thing as a nonsectarian prayer and that it cheapens prayer to try to make it so.

Methodist Church Choirs To Present A Cantata

SUNDAY, the combined choirs of St. John's Lutheran Church, Stroudsburg, will present the cantata "A Celebration of Easter," by Roy Ringwald, at 4 p.m.

In the Christian Year, this Sunday is traditionally known as "Cantata," coming from the Latin version of the theme for the day, "Sing unto the Lord a new song." In many churches, it is customary to observe the day with special musical offerings.

"A Celebration of Easter" portrays the central point of the Christian theology from many aspects, setting forth the Old Testament prophecies, the New Testament narrative, and the devotion of the faithful.

The congregation will participate in the final section of the cantata, singing with the combined choirs the majestic Easter chorale, "O Risen Lord With Us Abide."

A unique feature of "A Celebration of Easter" is Roy Ringwald's use of many joyful carols throughout the work, interspersed with original music for full choir, women's voices alone, men's voices alone, solos and a duet.

In addition to the cantata, a short canticle, "Venite Exultemus," will be sung by the younger choirs of the church.

To Lessen Friction

NEW YORK (AP) — A gift of $5,000 for Arab refugees has been made by the American Council for Judaism Philanthropic Fund.

Henry S. Moyer, president of the fund, said the gift is to help demonstrate the fund's "humanitarian, nonpolitical concern for the welfare of the less fortunate" and to help "lessen the friction between Moslem and Jew."

The gift was made to Church World Service, the relief and rehabilitation agency of the National Council of Churches.

Today's Lesson: Day Of The Lord

BY N. SPEER JONES

THE LAST chapter of Peter's Second Epistle and the Epistle of Jude have often been compared in their prophetic preoccupation with what commonly has been called Judgment Day, the Day of the Lord or the Day of God.

This "day" is not to be interpreted literally as a day, but rather as a time or period. In the Old Testament, the phrase was somewhat ambiguous, being used to refer both to immediate manifestations of God's power and distant premonitions of it.

With the New Testament, the meaning of the phrase becomes fixed via the apostles, imbued with the Holy Spirit's revelations. It means a period beyond our notions of time, when God will be supreme in men's thoughts, when human things shall loom insignificant beside the Eternal, and when all men must give an account of themselves. As Christ says, "For every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give an account thereof in the Day of Judgment." (Matthew 12:36); Peter asserts that "unjust men are reserved unto the Day of Judgment to be punished" (II Peter 2:9).

One commentator, C. F. Keil, terms the Day of the Lord the time when God issues a judgment "through which everything that has been brought to eternity by the stream of time, unjudged and unadjusted once for all, to bring to an end the whole development of the world in accordance with its divine appointment and perfect the Kingdom of God by the annihilation of all its foes" (quoted in "Peloubet's Select Notes," p. 184).

Peter brings out a fallacy very common in this scientific day — the supposition that because things appear to work by certain fixed laws, the laws are immutable, or that the laws do not imply a Lawgiver.

It is easy to imagine what a period of cynicism must have flourished about the time that these two letters were written; most of the early church leaders had died (the fathers fell asleep) — II Peter 3:4 and still Christ's promise to return again had not been fulfilled.

It needed the faith and insight of the Holy Spirit to understand that God's time was not reckoned the same as man's, and that God's promises must be fulfilled in God's time, not man's ("one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day") II Peter 3:8.

Peter's description of the "new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (II Peter 3:13) may be considered a magnification of the rebirth of an individual when he receives Christ.

The New Testament mentions three men named Jude (or Judas). One was the infamous Judas Iscariot, one is mentioned in John 14:22, and the third, the author of our letter, was apparently a member of the family of Joseph and Mary, "brother of James" (Jude 1) and of Christ Himself.

Jude's letter is entirely concerned with one problem — that of apostasy, or repudiation of faith. It has often been compared with the second chapter of Peter's Second Epistle, with many Bible scholars attempting to prove that one was based on the other.

Our lesson includes an alleviation from the dire warnings of these two New Testament prophecies — Psalm 138, which reminds us that those who are working sincerely for Christ have nothing to fear on Judgment Day. "Though I walk in the midst of trouble, Thou wilt revive me . . . Thy loving-kindness, O Jehovah, endureth for ever" (Psalm 138:7-8).

Following the movie refreshments will be served.

THREE

PILLARS of POWER

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The traditions of America are inseparably linked with religion, and the Church has been the most powerful factor in our national life. Its faith has inspired our highest achievements.

The influence of religion has sanctified our homes and fostered in them the solid virtues and strong faith which have molded our national character and shaped our course in world history.

Our public school system is the outgrowth of religious zeal and the desire of the Church to spread enlightenment among the people. It has invoked blessings on those who train our youth.

The home, the school, and the Church—these are the great triumvirate whose faithful and tireless efforts have made America the most favored land on earth. They are the pillars of our strength, the foundation of our hope.

Let us cling to these elements of national strength—make our homes the abode of happiness; make our schools centers of light and knowledge; and make God our guide as we move into the untrod future.

A TOTAL of 415 trout were caught Saturday at the Annual Kiddies Trout Tournament held by the Laurel Hill Rod and Gun Club on the Joseph Warren's Estate Meadow, two miles west of Portland.

Sodas, candy and hot dogs were served to contestants by the club.

SODA BREAK—for Carl Strawbridge, before going back to the edge and putting a hook in the water to get company for the two on the stringer.

"HERE IT COMES, DADDY"—Renea Jagers and her father, Ray, Stroudsburg brace themselves for the job of landing Renea's catch Saturday.

WHOPPER — Fred Shumaker, Binghamton, N.Y., four-year-old grandson of Fred Shumaker (rear) vice president of the Laurel Hill Rod and Gun Club waves his catch for his grandfather to admire.

EAGER EXPECTANCY—Fishing poles join foliage and brush along the brook on the Joseph Warren Estate Meadow with anticipatory children attached to the ends.

A DREAM ON THE LINE—Each of the more than 270 children around the pond on the Joseph Warren Estate was hoping to catch a trout like this one. At the other end of the pole is the lucky one who did.

SPECTATORS AND PARTICIPANTS — At the annual Laurel Hill Rod and Gun Club Trout Tournament. Parents aid children in baiting lines and even go so far as to point out a choice point in the water that is sure (maybe) to harbor the big ones.

THREE ON A STICK—John Trimper, Mount Bethel, eight year old angler shows off his catch to Charles Phillips, trustee and Fred Shumaker, vice president of the Laurel Hill Rod and Gun Club.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Too much too soon had everybody gasping like fish out of water yesterday, and unwary drivers who got in a car with leather-lined seats which had been standing too long in the sun sounded forth like the bellow of a wounded bull.

The only truly comfortable people were the ones who had been swimming and were sitting around in wet bathing suits. In the good old days, as I remember them, Memorial Day marked the official opening of the swimming season.

Speaking of the good old days, it doesn't seem like five years since the Ostroms moved to Florida. It was fun hearing about their golden wedding anniversary party about which local friends have been buzzing with plans for a gift for weeks.

It was also interesting to note that two couples with close connections to Monroe County both celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary within days of each other — and maybe within blocks of each other since both the Ostroms and the Millers now live in Bradenton, Fla.

And speaking of weddings, golden and otherwise, I wonder who started the flimsy custom of describing what the bride's mother wore? It's not that I haven't tried to find something appropriate and dignified, but apparently the powers that be have decided, willy-nilly, that all brides are size 10 and all bride's mothers are size 16.

This weekend I'd better find something that fits and still doesn't look as if I thought somebody was going to ask me to the Junior Prom — or this bride's mother is going to wear a strait-jacket if I have to make it myself...

Their golden wedding anniversary was celebrated at a reception at the Holiday Inn from 2 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, May 15.

Area Natives Mark 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Miller, both natives of Stroudsburg, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on May 21 in Bradenton, Fla., where they now make their home.

William Miller, and his wife, nee Hazel Depue, were married by Rev. Charles M. Dixon, pastor of the Pompton Lakes Dutch Reformed Church. They moved to Pompton Lakes in 1915 where they lived until Mr. Miller's retirement in 1957.

They have one son, one daughter, three grandsons and one great-granddaughter.

Mr. Miller, a machinist, was employed by the E.I. Dupont Co. until he went into business for himself in the Pontiac-Oakland car agency. From 1933 until his retirement he was employed by the American Hard Rubber Co. of Butler, N.J.

Always interested in music, he taught violin and had his own orchestra. He also played the bass horn for many years in the Pompton Lakes Fireman's Band, later becoming "leader of the band". He is an exempt fireman. Miller also was one of the most active members of the Odd Fellows Lodge.

Mrs. Miller is a charter member of the Rebekah Lodge in which she held many offices and was noted for her decorations for lodge parties.

Now residing at 1703 58th Ave., Drive W. Bradenton, Fla., the Millers always make Stroudsburg one of their stops when they come north. They have many friends and relatives living here.

I wonder if you react as I do to names? For instance, Charles of the Ritz makeup gives me a feeling of luxury before I ever open the container . . . do you know why? Because of that word Ritz and the outdated slang expression "ritz" which lifts me immediately out of my working-girl role and sets me in a bracket of society that is "putting on the Ritz." By the same token, whenever I hear about Sarong Girdles and Bali Bras, I am transported miles away on a royal road to romance. Maybe this is due to travelogues I've seen of Bali, and the tremulously romantic song from "South Pacific," "Bali H'ai." Maybe too, because Dorothy Lamour long ago made a sarong the accepted traveling costume when one hit the road to high adventure.

All of these things passed through my mind the other afternoon when Betty Colvin, our foundationwear buyer, told me the happy news that Bali Bras and Sarong Girdles have been added to our extensive line of intimate garments here at Wyckoff's. These words conjure up a picture of beauty in my mind, as well as a picture of leisurely ease that is restive and welcome. When I think of Bali, I think of rolling seas . . . fruits fresh from the trees . . . swaying palms . . . dreamy music . . . a slow, easy tempo that induces relaxation and tenderness. Say "sarong" and the spell it casts is much the same. Suddenly my world becomes a place where everything touches upon Paradise, and the living is easy. Even before I had seen it, I was completely, fanatically "sold" on this merchandise that is so cleverly named, and so skillfully aimed at making women just as exciting and glamorous as the islands to which a sarong is native.

These girdles and bras are exquisitely designed . . . no doubt about it, and I was interested in seeing that there are actually three lengths of bra—the short style favored by slim young women who need very little support . . . the longline for the well developed figure . . . and a longer longline ideal for women perhaps even taller than I. Betty showed me the Water Bali, as the bras is known, in all three lengths, and pointed out that there are three styles in both the longline and short bra. Each is trimmed with a pretty pastel bow in keeping with the slogan, "Every Bali has a bow."

The short bra that I found most attractive, because I have a weakness for the elegance of lace, is called the Flower Bali. It is of lace and Spandex, with fiber lift. Betty tells me this fiber acts much as wiring would in contouring the bust . . . but it is gentle and comfortable. In fact, she says it was the superior comfort of the Bali bra that induced her to add this popular, widely advertised line to our already well-stocked shelves.

The long line bra is of vyrene Spandex and has an expandable scalloped cuff at the waistline that adds not only to the garment's molding accomplishments, but also looks very dainty. Sizes in both types range from 32A to 40C, with prices from 3.95 to 6.95. Sarong Girdles are priced from 7.95 to 13.95, and should really be seen to be appreciated.

See them next time you are in Wyckoff's and remember them next time you are searching for a garment that will please you, not only for its own loveliness but because it adds to your own loveliness. I'm sure the manufacturer is bally well justified in claiming BALI can fill the bill!

Old-Age Aids Becoming Area Community Resource

OLD-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits are becoming increasingly important as a community resource according to Edward F. Sullivan, District Manager of the Eastern Social Security Office.

$201.40 is paid monthly in social security benefits to 4,378 persons in Monroe County. This is an increase of about 13 per cent over last year's figures. While the benefits are intended primarily for the beneficiaries' economic security, they help business in the community generally. Most of the money is spent immediately for food, clothing, and other necessities.

At the present time, social security benefits are being paid at a rate of over one billion dollars a month. "There are several reasons for the increase," Sullivan said. There are more aged people; benefits are now payable at age 62; and less social security credit is needed to meet the eligibility requirements for benefits.

The average old-age benefit nationally for December 1961 was $74.04 for a retired worker. In the State of Pennsylvania, the average benefit was $8.26.

The table below shows the number and amount of each type of benefit being paid in Monroe County, as of December 31, 1961, the date of the latest available tabulation:

Beneficiary Group	Number of Beneficiaries	Total of Payments
Retired Worker	250	$192,345
Wife or Husband	626	25,151
Widow or Widower	487	31,374
Mothers and Children	454	23,572
Disabled Workers and Dependents	267	18,393

Myers In The Cotton Bowl

WHY DALLAS? What is the All-America High School football classic? These were just a few of the questions area residents began posing after Harold Myers of East Stroudsburg High was selected to participate in the event.

Myers, who has the honor of being the first player in the Poconos to compete in the classic, received another high school honor when he was named to captain the North team in its endeavors against the South. He departed last Sunday by airplane for the contest which is slated to take place tonight at 8 p. m. in the Cotton Bowl, Dallas, Texas.

During the past week, the flashy senior has been undergoing two practice sessions daily. One was held at 8:30 a. m. and the other at 2:30 p. m. in the confines of one of the famous grid bowls in the nation.

Walker, Russel Are Coaches

Myers will be on the starting backfield as a halfback. The backs are averaging 195 pounds and the linemen are at a 220 average.

Doak Walker, Southern Methodist three-time All-American, will coach the North team along with "Rusty" Russell, who ironically, coached Walker at SMU.

But to the "whys" as we stated earlier. Why Dallas for the event? First of all, because of its facilities at the Cotton Bowl. But more important, perhaps, because it is in an ideal football climate. It is a growing, progressive metropolis, eager to secure new business, events and entertainment.

As a gateway to the Southwest, Dallas is in the heart of football country. And it is readily accessible for the players, writers and fans. Last year's contest drew some 17,000 fans.

A much larger turnout is expected at tonight's clash. What's more, Dallas will be in the minds and on the tongues of football fans all across the nation. The city will receive many, many dollars worth of free advertising, but it does not obligate the city or its merchants to any outlay of financial assistance.

'Big D' Will Be Remembered

Dallas will be remembered by every Prep All-American as they tell their friends and relatives at home of their experiences in "Big D." After many years of hard work and after 14 annual events, Dallas will, in the near future, be synonymous with the All-American High School grid center.

The All-American High School classic itself, is many things. But, perhaps, most important it is the selection of the top high school performers in the United States. Known also as the Prep All-American Classic, it is the original, the exclusive All-America All-Star football game, played by the best high school seniors in the land.

There are many college all-star games, but there is only one national high school classic.

To the boy, the event is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to associate with the young men from all parts of the country—of all walks of life. Myers is currently rooming with school lads from Arizona, Maryland and Texas.

To the parents it is a joyous occasion. One in which they can watch the youths participating among the best of the lot.

To the football coach, (especially coach Jack Kist), it is a proud moment—a job well done. It is the climax of months and even years of training, to do the job right, to get the job done thoroughly.

This, and much more, is the All-America High School classic.

Majors Okay Plan For 100 Minor Clubs

NEW YORK (AP)—The major league approved a baseball player development plan Friday that would guarantee operation of at least 100 minor league clubs.

The 100 clubs would be distributed among three classifications of minors, probably on the basis of 20 in Class Triple A, 20 in Class Double A and 60 in Class A. The six existing classes would be reduced to three by merging Double A and A into a new Double A level and combining B, C and D into a new Class A.

Commissioner Ford Frick said he hoped the plan would be in operation by 1963. The next step would be a meeting of the major league general managers and farm directors. No date has been set for the meeting.

We approved a broad general plan to stabilize and guarantee the operation of a sound minor league system, adequate to take care of our player development program," said Frick. The vote was unanimous at a joint meeting of the majors.

Although Frick said each of the 20 big league clubs eventually would operate at least five minor clubs, there would be exceptions made to cover the four new clubs (Houston, New York Mets, Washington and Los Angeles Angels) at the start.

"If one or more of the new clubs does not want to start out with five minors, somebody else will take more to even out the number at 100," said Frick.

Frick said he hoped the plan would be in operation by the time the minors hold their annual meeting in December.

Jaipur, Ridan Also Are Red-hot Choices

Decidedly Challenges Ten Rivals

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — The El Peco Ranch's Decidedly, a streamlined gray colt who whizzed to a Kentucky Derby record two weeks ago, will challenge 10 rivals Saturday in the 86th and most baffling Preackness Stakes in history.

Three colts are red hot choices for the second richest Preackness at Pimlico, and the whim of fate, skill or luck of a particular jockey or horse could tip the scale to either victory or defeat.

Ridan, Jaipur
In addition to Decidedly, the names on the lips of most race fans are Jaipur, owned by George D. Widener, and Mrs. Moody Jolley's Ridan. Handicappers are unable to agree on which should be the favorite. The track program will make Jaipur the 5-2

Cassius Clay 5-1 Favorite Over Daniels

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay talks at least five times as much as Billy Daniels and throws more leather than his rival. Because of the latter, Clay has been made a 5-1 favorite in the clash of unbeaten heavyweights on television Saturday night.

They are scheduled to go 10 rounds (ABC TV 9 p.m. EST) at St. Nicholas Arena although cocky Cassius says, "Daniels will fall in five."

The 20-year-old Louisville slugger has been right on the beam in his recent predictions. Daniels, however, said Clay's crystal ball won't help him in the fight.

"This is the one fight I've been waiting for," said Daniels, a tall, 25-year-old barber from New York. "Clay can be had and I sure am going to give it a big try."

Daniels won't have to look hard for Cassius, an aggressive boxer-puncher with a wallop to back up his loud talk.

Winner of the Olympic light heavyweight title at Rome in 1960, Cassius has won all 13 of his pro fights, 10 of them by knockouts. He has grown into a full-sized heavyweight, 6-foot-3 and 196 pounds. He already has stopped several fighters who have been ranked in the top ten, including Alex Miteff (6) and George Logan (4).

Clay is ranked ninth by Ring Magazine and seventh by the NBA. Daniels, although winner of all 16 of his pro fights, is unranked.

choice, with Decidedly and Ridan 3 to 1.

The Preackness is one mile and three-sixteenths, or one-sixteenth shorter than the Derby at Louisville May 5. That means the come-from-behind horses will have to turn it on quicker or the speed demons such as Ridan, Jaipur or Roman Line could be blanketed with the black-eyed susans before the slowpokes get into high gear.

Ridan, to be ridden by Manuel Yeza, was the even money favorite at Louisville but finished third. Decidedly clipped a full second off Whirlaway's 1941 Derby record of 2:01 2-5 and beat T. A. Grissom's Roman Line to the wire by 2¼ lengths.

Sir Ribot, fourth, returned to California, but Townsend B. Martin's Sunrise County, fifth to finish, is back for another crack at Decidedly. Seven of the 15 Derby starters are aiming at the Preackness spoils.

Other Runners
Others are the Crimson King Farm's Crimson Satan, sixth; Mrs. Joe W. Brown's Green Hornet, seventh, and Robert Lehman's Prego, who was pulled down last after almost being knocked down in the Kentucky cavalry chase.

Jaipur skipped the Derby as did Brandywine Stable's Greek Money, the Chesapeake winner; Frank E. Power's Vimy Ridge, who won the Senatorial Stakes, and the Jopa Stable's rank outsider, Flying Johnnie.

Post time is approximately 4:47 p.m. EST with radio and TV (CBS) from 4:30 p.m. A crowd of 35,000 or so is expected. The weatherman says it will be sunny and hot, near 90 degrees.

With 11 starters, the winner will collect $135,800 from a gross purse of $188,300, which is surpassed only by the 1959 race when the pot totaled $190,300 and Royal Orbit got $127,800.

Cicada Bids For All Time Filly Honors

NEW YORK (AP) — Cicada, ace of C. T. Chenery's Meadow Stable now that Sir Gaylord has been retired, bids for all-time money winning filly honors Saturday as the odds-on-favorite in the $50,000-added Acorn at Aqueduct.

The Acorn, a mile test, is the first of New York's triple crown races for 3-year-old fillies. The others to be decided later at Belmont Park are the $75,000-added Mother Goose and the $100,000-added Coaching Club American Oaks.

Considering Cicada's record of 15 victories in 22 starts, including four for six this year, the Acorn attracted an unusually large field of nine. But with the Chenery miss quoted at 1-2 only James Cox racy's Upstart is given any kind of a chance to take the major share of the $58,317. Upstart, winner of the recent Comely Stakes at Aqueduct, is second choice at 5-2.

Bill Collins Grabs Lead At Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Bill Collins of Miami, Fla., grabbed a two-stroke lead in the second round of the $20,000 Hot Springs Invitational Open Golf Tournament Friday.

Collins banded in birdies from 2, 3, 5, 6 and 9 feet and bogeyed once for a four-under-par 68. That gave the 265-pound ex-Marine a 36-hole total of 133.

Buster Cupit of Fort Smith, Ark., and Kel Nagle of Sydney, Australia, tied for second at 135. Cupit fired a 68 Friday.

The 41-year-old Nagle, whose putting was off, had six birdies and three bogeys for a 69.

Al Geiberger of Carlton Oaks, Calif., could manage only a 71 and dropped back into a tie for fifth place with Rod Funseth of Spokane, Wash., Jimmy Powell of Yorba Linda, Calif., and Berta Berta Weaver of Beaumont, Tex., all had 128.

Some 64 players survived the cutoff at 147.

MAY PITCH IN JAPAN — Former major league pitching star Don Newcombe mixes a drink at his tavern in Newark, N. J., after an announcement that he has been contacted by an official of a team in Japan's Central baseball league. Newcombe, who won 27 games in 1956 for the old Brooklyn Dodgers, denied he had signed a contract to play in Japan, but said he was considering the offer. (AP Wirephoto)

Bangor took a one-run lead in the first but the Blue Eagles scored solos in second third and fourth to take a 3-1 lead.

In the top of the fifth, however, the Slators tallied three runs to hold a slight 4-3 edge. One in the fifth for Nazareth tied the count at 4-all setting up extra innings.

Tally 3-Runs
In the top of the ninth, the Slators tallied three runs to capture their third straight win. In the past weeks they beat Pen Argyl and East Stroudsburg hurting both teams in their chances for the league title.

Frank Holland began the Slater march in the ninth with a single and John Heard beat out a bunt. Denny Holland squeezed home his brother as Sherwood Bellis banged a single to score Heard.

Bill Heller got another bunt single just before Sherwood Heard, the winning hurler, doubled in the last run.

Pen Argyl kept its chances for the league crown alive as it scored the winning run in the seventh after two were out.

But Terry McLean and Dick Kuster held the heavy-hitting Cav-

Stroud Loses Loop Finale To 'Kids 2-0

NORTHAMPTON High, pushing for solo runs in the fourth and last innings, topped Stroud Union High 2-0 yesterday in a Lehigh Valley League contest. It was the finale for Stroud in league competition.

Stroud's Warren Loney was charged with the loss although he hurled a nifty four-hitter. Loney scattered four singles and permitted one earned run. He fanned six and gave up two free passes. The Mountaineers banded out six hits off winner Don Oplinger. They also garnered five walks but six strike outs by Oplinger prevented any serious scoring threat.

Queenan Gets Two
Bill Queenan, Stroud catcher-fielder, picked up two of the six bingles in three trips to the plate. Tom Morekan, Dave Pierson, Don Metzgar and Ed Nevil also collected one hit apiece for the losers.

Stroud Union ended its league season in the tilt. They play one more contest for the campaign which is against borough rival East Stroudsburg High on Thursday, May 24, at the latter's field.

Twins Drop Yankees To Third Place

NEW YORK (AP) — Harmon Killebrew's lousy hitting was the difference Friday night as the streaking Minnesota Twins subdued New York 4-3 and dropped the Yankees from a share of first to third place in the American League.

The Yankees, already playing without the services of home run king Roger Maris, may have lost the services of Mickey Mantle. The star center fielder's legs buckled under him when he was running out a ground ball that ended the ninth. He was helped from the field on the shoulders of two teammates.

Minnesota's fifth straight triumph and 10th in 13 starts vaulted the Twins into second place, a half game behind Cleveland, with best Detroit 9-2. New York is third, a full game back.

Dear Abby

If You Don't Succeed...

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a heel. I have been to see an attorney, and he in turn sent me to a priest. So far I have been to four priests with no solution in sight. Isn't there someone else besides a priest who could give me counsel?

HOLY MESS

DEAR MESS: If you really wanted "counsel," a combination of four priests could certainly provide it. Maybe you're not listening. Try a marriage counselor.

DEAR ABBY: Can you offer any suggestions on how a respectable young woman can become acquainted with a gentleman who has lived on her street for many years but whom she has never met? I live at home with my family and he lives nearby. He lives alone and I don't think he is interested in anyone else because he is home almost every evening and on week-ends. (I see his light burning.) He is very conservative and on the shy side and so am I.

SHY AND LONELY

DEAR SHY: Unless you want to be forever "lonely," you had better use a little ingenuity. Put the "good neighbor policy" into action. Ask a good neighbor to arrange a small neighborhood get-together, and be sure to include your shy friend. Perhaps he is not for you at all. But at least you'll know.

DEAR ABBY: Will you tell me if it is proper to bring an "escort" to a wedding? I am being married soon, and many of my friends have told me that if they can't bring their own "escorts," they are not coming. I have invited about 16 of my girl friends to my wedding and reception and I cannot afford to let them each bring an escort. What should I do?

UPSET BRIDE-TO-BE

DEAR UPSET: An engaged guest may request permission to bring her "intended" to a wedding. But not any old "escort."

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WILLING TO WAIT": Don't be a fool. His wife has the respectability of being the "Mrs." She also has all the legal protection, plus the "children whom he adores." All you have is his "word," which you surely know is not worth very much. Surrender, dear.

How's the world treating you? For a personal, unpublished reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is according to the stars.

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Don't wait till last minute to get those FIRST things done. Neither race and rush into fatigue. In other words, figure it carefully. Aries: Under mixed vibrations.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — Little to disturb you if you do not disturb equilibrium yourself. It's that sort period, minor flaws can be blown out of proportion. Shun hassles and other brevity.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Hold on! Do you have to go at that tempo? Or have you been letting some gems slip by while you dabbled in the less sure matters? Even so, take tendon-free pace.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — You know whether you are up on facts and "even with" responsibilities. Check with yourself: what should be ratified, and how smooth are the emotions? Learn from others' indiscretions.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — Aim for best possible relationships with those involved with your life and obligations; and that's just the starter. How else can wise solutions be reached? No room for irreverence.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — Despite obstacles (yours some better, no worse than most now), you can achieve a fair standing in most areas. Take fact with you, and friendliest attitude. Study, read, be easy.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — So far, less favorable aspects in your chart this month may have to remain on your toes instead of "at ease" to avoid slipping backwards or letting others inject unwanted regulations.

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio) — Conscientious speech and action will project itself into the dark corners. Be painstaking in your and others' affairs but don't strain. Zeal need not convert to a hectic heat.

November 24 to December 23 (Sagittarius) — Prescience, lack of suffering, but is mostly for those "mean" little things and people. Benevolence, your finer traits will run over them with honor, aiding all concerned.

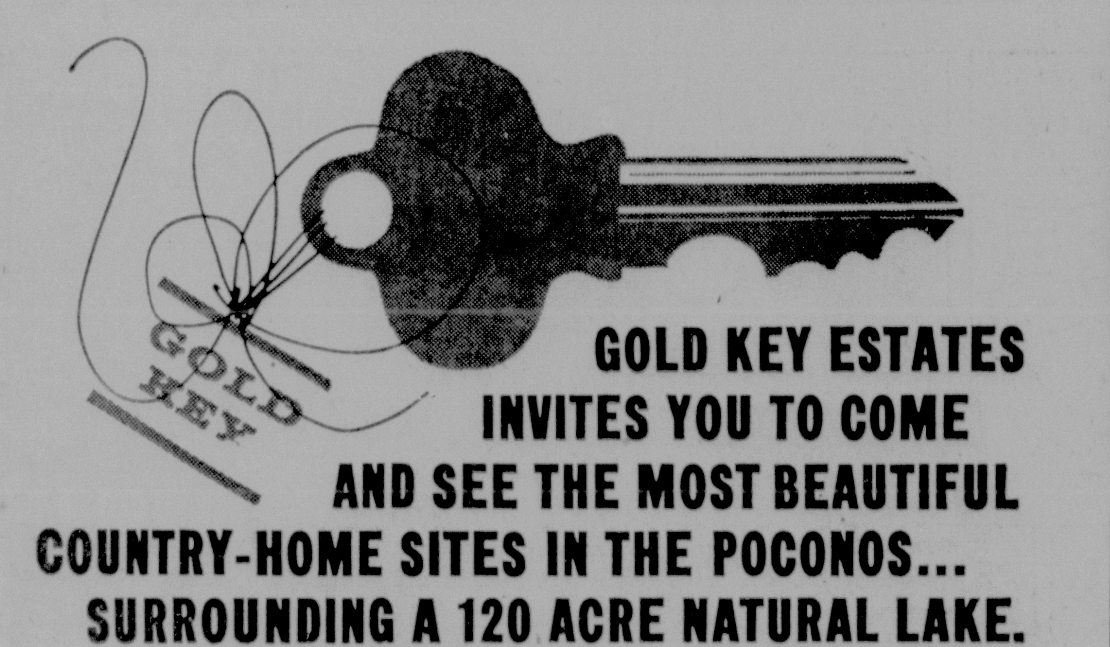

December 24 to January 20 (Capricorn) — Keep tabs on your own actions. We suddenly see both faults and rebuffs when we willingly mirror ourselves. It's a fast road to right and rare experiences. Favorable Saturn barometer.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius) — Experiment, BUT with full facts and knowledge of the work. The small gain repeated unearths big claims. Swing well over into verified areas, surety to BE SURE. At ease!

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces) — Comparisons helpful if to elicit more valid methods, answers. Neptune says gains won't come here. Your acuteness should relish day's tasks, delight in its ventures.

YOU ROIN TODAY: It is a rare person that goes through a day or project without error, and often you people fall into this category. But before you inflate too much (which I don't think likely) when you do make a mistake, it can be a "honey!" This Head Sign of the Earth Trinitinity is controlled both by intelligent reasoning and desires and emotions. So while a tremendous interesting individual, you do have conflicts to govern, daily, with studiousness. Penetration, your native cleverness high here. Vigor is the spark that ignites many quick strides forward, with your lead, follow-up, assistance. Don't let comforts delay your start at the major projects your life should embrace. Take pleasure in reasonable doses, including beverages, foods. Count ten before that discussion. Birthdate of: Mme. Nellie Melba, Australian opera singer; John Hopkins, founder Johns Hopkins Hospital University.

Scranton Says Voters Shunned Dilworth

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—William W. Scranton, Republican nominee for governor, said Friday Pennsylvania Democrats used Tuesday's primary election to show they didn't like Richardson Dilworth as the party's gubernatorial candidate.

Scranton won the primary race over his one opponent, J. Collins McSparran, collecting seven votes out of every nine cast.

Dilworth was a 3 to 1 victor over two other candidates.

Scranton, in a luncheon address to the Pennsylvania Republican State Finance Committee, said "two complete Democrats — men who did no campaigning at all — polled nearly 150,000 Democratic votes each against Dilworth. This shows that even the Democrats are dissatisfied with Dilworth."

Scranton now is finishing his second year as a congressman.

Dilworth was mayor of Philadelphia for six years before resigning in March.

Scranton asserted the "people are fed up with waste and inefficiency among the Democrats in Harrisburg. People are fed up with Democratic graft and corruption. The people want a change."

Philip T. Sharples, state GOP chairman, said about $2.5 million will have to be raised to finance the Republican campaign in Pennsylvania this fall.

CHARMING EARLY AMERICAN 10 ACRE ESTATE IN EFFORT

If you enjoy Early American, and like living in the country here's the perfect buy. The above pictured home is nestled in an idyllic setting amidst beautiful trees on 10 acres of lush land. The traditional home has white frame siding, a slate roof, 10 large rooms with the original wide pine plank floors, the original dutch designing of simulated curly maple on the doors, an original tulip painting on the walls 1 foot wide all around the top. The foundation on the house as well as many of the other buildings is hand cut local stone. The barn has a stone marker 1861. The home may be older. There's a full basement, 5 rooms on the first, and 5 rooms on the second floor, an attic, lots of closets, pantry, and even a secret passage way upstairs. Outside there are two barns, and another stone and frame building 20'x40' that could be a shop, artists studio, you name it, there are two floors, and an uncompleted stone addition is there waiting for a roof to be added. Also on the premises are numerous other buildings such as a milk house, smoke house, granary, wood shed. All you need on this place is a strong desire to put in some modern conveniences and you have an estate. This is an excellent location for a resort or the perfect buy for an artist, or just someone who loves the country. This estate couldn't be duplicated for 5 times the asking price.

Delay Action

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Delegates to the annual Wyoming Conference of the Methodist Church Friday postponed action until Saturday on a proposal that would permit Bishop Fred Pierce Corson to appoint a director of evangelism.

The proposal evoked considerable floor debate and the postponement was agreed upon to permit cleanup of the day's conference business.

Before debate on the issue was halted, however, The Rev. Dr. Earl V. Tolley, Scranton district superintendent, said a single director would permit much greater activity in evangelistic work "than we are doing now."

The Rev. Dr. Russell Hawke, Endicott, N. Y., also endorsed the proposal, saying that "vision is needed if we are to expand evangelistic plans."

The Rev. William W. Reid Jr., Carverton, disagreed that a single head was needed.

Bishop Corson told the conference he was concerned with a report that showed expenses last year were $104,355 higher than in 1960 while church membership and other activities dropped.

Diner Owner

Faces Charges

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Harold Walk, owner of a diner destroyed by fire, has been charged with two counts of murder in the deaths of two men killed in the fire.

Walk, owner of the Sun-Diner on Route 119 near Connelville, also is accused of conspiracy, and burning to defraud an insurer.

He was lodged in Fayette County jail Thursday pending a hearing sometime next week.

Joseph W. Snyder, about 45, was charged with arson, conspiracy and being an accessory. He was released on $25,000.

The charges against the men were brought by Peter E. Scoler, state police fire marshal.

Frank Meyers 30, and Paul Hart 23, both of Connelville, died in the fire Oct. 19, 1960.

Thomas Ruge, assistant director, said Walk hired Snyder to arrange to have the diner burned and that Snyder apparently hired Meyers and Hart to set the fire.

$125,000 Grant

Approved

HARRISBURG (AP) — The state Highways Department agreed Friday to turn over $125,000 to the Department of Internal Affairs to speed up the topographic mapping of Pennsylvania.

The department said the state planned a 10-year program to give up-to-date topographic mapping for the entire state.

The Internal Affairs Department would have a total of $250,000 for the start of the project. The federal government also is expected to contribute a similar amount.

The transfer of funds enabled the state to put the entire $250,000 up for matching by the federal government.

Tentative

Approval Given

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority gave tentative approval Friday to 14 loan applications, totalling over $18 million.

It was estimated that the loans would provide for expansion or establishment of industries that would provide more than 2,400 jobs in the economically depressed areas of the state.

Gov. Lawrence Is Guest Speaker

PITTSBURGH (AP) — "If we are to progress, in this time, we must meet fresh challenges with fresh ideas," Gov. Lawrence said Friday.

The strength of our state and our country, said the governor, in a speech prepared for the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Association, rest "in large part, in our ability, as a people, to devote endless amounts of time to the betterment of our fellow human beings."

"The professional associations occupy an unusual position in this great effort. They are concerned both with the promotion of their own profession and the promotion of the general public welfare through the encouragement of ethical standards," he added.

In the endeavor of good government to provide for the care of human life and happiness, Lawrence said, "these should be no greater or stronger or firmer allies than men of medicine and men whose lives are devoted to the cause of good government."

Stroud Union Quill, Scroll Guests Of NBC's Kintner

ROBERT Kintner, president of the National Broadcasting Company, alumnus of Stroud Union High School, recently arranged for the Robert E. Kintner SUHS Chapter of Quill and Scroll to tour the NBC news department. Samuel M. Sharkey, Jr., Night News Manager, conducted the tour.

The members of Quill and Scroll saw a live television show in the morning, and then visited the New York School of Performing Arts.

At 3 p.m. the Stroud Union students met with Sharkey who explained the processes of world-wide news gathering and editing and preparation of broadcast scripts. During this time the students were introduced to Chet Huntley and Morgan Beatty.

After seeing the news room, Sharkey continued with the "red carpet" treatment by personally conducting the student group through the NBC studios, control rooms, and other broadcast facilities.

Before the conclusion of the tour, Sharkey emphasized the very rigid requirements for employment in the NBC news department.

Teachers Ira Nagler and Joan Weber were in charge of the students. Others attending were: Carol Ann Sabinsky, Valerie Howitt, Nina Bossard, Monika Borch, Nancy Hilliard, Sandy Possinger, Georgia Smolenyak, and Mrs. Ira Nagler.

Black Muslim Seen Threat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles Friday described the Black Muslim movement as a national threat and called on Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to investigate it.

Yorty spent about 30 minutes with Kennedy in the attorney general's office. He said afterward he assumed that Kennedy was receptive to his suggestion for a nationwide investigation of the movement.

The Black Muslims are a Negro group claiming religious motivation and possessing a background of militant actions in racial matters.

Drivers kill and cripple more children than any disease!

Think of careless driving as a disease . . . a terrible one. Completely relentless in its choice of victims. For not only do strangers kill other people's children, but parents may kill their own! What can we do to prevent these tragedies? We can dig in our heels and say, "Enough!" We can write our local enforcement officials and tell them:

"I Support Strict Law Enforcement!"

When police officers and judges know they have the support of their community, they can really crack down hard on the speeders and the light passers. They can do a more effective job of protecting your children. In community after community, the records prove it: Where traffic laws are strictly enforced and obeyed, deaths go down!
